Everyone who attends the St. Rose of Lima Confirmation Track II Retreat is expected to participate actively and behave appropriately so that all attending have the opportunity to safely enjoy this special weekend of ministry! It is best if we all know the expectations going in. The student's participation at the Track II Confirmation Retreat is one of the most important indicators of sincerity and preparedness for the Sacrament of Confirmation. If the student chooses not to demonstrate this sincerity through respectful participation, additional time may be necessary for him/her to prepare for the Sacrament.

This weekend your time should be spent on deepening your relationship with God. I will be respectful of others ideas and opinions. I understand that I need to arrive on time and remain until the conclusion of the retreat.

If one of these guidelines is not adhered to, appropriate action shall be taken. One possible action shall be that the student(s) involved shall have his/her parents or guardian called and arrangements for immediate transportation home shall be required. In the unfortunate event a student is unable to complete the retreat for any reason, we are unable to extend a refund; the student shall be required to locate, attend and pay for a makeup retreat. In addition, a meeting with parent(s) and student shall be arranged to determine other possible action, for example, destruction of property shall require retribution in the form of the repayment of damages.
